Absences

The absence form is intended as a vehicle to enter planned (part / full-time) absence reasons into the time system, in accordance with the defined work-flow process.

An activated deputy settlement demands for the nomination of a colleague (deputy), who will act in place during the absence period.

The deputy will receive all application forms (To Dos), which guarantees, that all assigned duties (To Dos) will be transferred and completed.

The personal calendar may be a useful help, just like the group calendar. Both can provide an overview over the absence-planning within your team.

To hide the calendar, click on the "Hide calendar" button.

You can start the form either directly, by a click on the "Start process" button, or save it as a draft for further editing, by clicking on the "Save as draft" button.

For detailed description of handling, please see chapter > Requests.

As long as the process is in progress (status not approved), the absence reason will be entered into the system, but marked in red colour.

After the approval, the absence reason is marked in blue colour, all other relevant data (e.g. remaining vacation, planned vacation) will be updated.
